

Pyrite

Pyrite: often referred to as fool's gold because of its golden color, it can be mistaken for real gold. Traditional symbol for money and good luck, is believed to help remedy financial hardship and attract abundance. protective and shielding stone, helping to prevent all negative energy from permeating your body crystal of positive energy motivating and empowering - great stone for students encourages leadership qualities and is an ally for managers and those working toward promotion. increases confidence and boosts self-worth powerful gemstones for manifestation, especially with regards to wealth and prosperity. They help you to make wise financial decisions, helping you to take action and follow the correct path, Can help you overcome any of the fears that may be standing in your way of achieving success and greatness. Pyrite is associated with the 3rd Chakra (Solar Plexus) - Emotions, Confidence, and Personal Power

